CHORUS

nev - er let our old flag fall, _____ For we love it the best of all, _____ We don't want to fight to show our might, But when we start, well fight, fight, fight. In peace or war, our voi - ces ring, "My coun - - try tis of thee," we sing, At the sound of her call, We'll show them all, We'll nev - er let our old flag

1. fall. 2. Well fall.

The musical score consists of three staves of music in common time with a key signature of two flats. The top staff is for the voice, the middle staff is for the piano (right hand), and the bottom staff is for the piano (left hand/bass). The lyrics are integrated into the music. The first section of the refrain starts with 'Roo - ney's at the fight - in' Tim Roo - ney's at the fight - in' He's'. The second section continues with 'far a - way in land's a - cross the sea For'. The third section concludes with 'free- dom's wrongs he's right - in' And when he's done with fight - in' He'll'. The piano parts provide harmonic support with chords and bass lines.

'Twas on a wet October morn among the hills of Kerry,
I met a little Colleen in the soaking mist and rain
Her cheeks were like the briar rose, her lips were like the cherry,
And as she trod the heather she was singing this refrain.

Said I my pretty Colleen, is Tim Rooney then your brother, Oh no she cried he's not and 'blush'd like blossom in the Spring
Sure we'll be after getting married some time or another
An' just to keep me spirits up while Tim's away I sing.
