CHARLOTTE WALKER IN "OUT OF DARKNESS."

Charlotte Walker, the celebrated theatrical star, will make her second appearance before photodramatic audiences in the thrilling drama of lost identity, "Out of Darkness," by Hector Turnbull.

Produced by the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Film Company, in this play Miss Walker is said to equal the success she made in the Lasky production of "Kindling."

In "Out of Darkness," Miss Walker is seen as Helen Scott, wealthy young heiress and owner of the famous Scott Canneries. Helen, however, is so interested in society that she leaves the handling of the business affairs of the Canneries' various branches to her hard-fisted uncle.

Wed., Thurs., Fri., Sat.
Sept. 15, 16, 17, 18.

BLANCHE SWEET IN "THE CASE OF BECKY."

Blanche Sweet, Carlyle Blackwell, Theodore Roberts and James Neill are the four names that head the cast for the Lasky-Belasco production of Edward Locke's famous drama, "The Case of Becky," which will be the attraction at the Royal Theatre.

Never before has Blanche Sweet been seen in a role similar to the one she plays in this photodrama. When "The Case of Becky" was produced by David Belasco, as a drama, it caused a sensation in the theatre-going world. Not since the days of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" has a play of dual personality been presented to the public. And when the victim of the two-selves is a young girl, especially of Miss Sweet's charm and ability, the announcement that the photodrama will be seen here is one of unusual interest.

Words by SEYMOUR RICE.

WALTZ SONG.

Music by JOE BREN.

Tempo di Valse.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 3/4 time, marked f and mf. The melody is in the right hand, and the accompaniment is in the left hand. The lyrics are as follows:

When sum - mer is
When day turns to

here, there's a place that is dear, Down the shad - y night, it is al - ways moon - light, Down the shad - y lane ..... It is dan - dy and fine, yes a - ny old time;

In the spring the young man's fancy
Lightly turns to thoughts like this:
That young lovers must have something
More to live on than their bliss;
They must have some rugs and carpets,
And a rocking chair perhaps,
For they can't do all their sitting
On each other's knees and laps;
For the things which make life pleasant
You should know just where to go
And we're sure the place is AVERY'S
Where the prices are so low.

THAT FASCINATING RAG

Words by Wm. R. CLAY.

Music by WALTER ROLFE.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 2/4 time, marked with a forte (f) dynamic. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The piano part features a rhythmic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The vocal line enters in the second measure with the lyrics: "In the ho - tel As - tor there He kept on a play - in' till". The piano part then plays a short melodic phrase marked with a piano (p) dynamic. The vocal line continues with the lyrics: "was a mus - ic Mas - ter At morn - ing noon and night time he'd ev 'ry thing was sway - in' In lob - by grill the par - lor and". The piano part continues with a similar rhythmic pattern. The vocal line concludes with the lyrics: "play — Oh my this mus - ic lov - ing sin - ner at rag - time was a win - ner He'd bar — They say that mus - ic so en - tranc - ing set ev - 'ry thing a pranc - ing, The". The piano part concludes with a final chord.
