Fighting in France

Words and Music
By HONOR BRIGHT

Moderato

My thoughts are turn - ing o'er the sea to you my dear, to you my When once the foe is crushed I'll come to you my dear, to you my dear, My heart is long - ing now to be, with you my dear, with dear, With joy - ous song and throb - bing drum to you my dear, to you my dear, The bat - tle field is sad and drear, 'Tis du - ty's you my dear, And then shall dawn a bright er day, With pain and call that keeps me here, So far from you, my dear. _____

 sor - row passed a - way, Once more with you, my dear. _____

REFRAIN

Oh, do not for-get me, _____ When I am far a - way, _____
 Will you re - mem-ber me? _____ Will your heart faith - ful be? _____

Fight - ing for Lib - er - ty, _____ O - ver the sea. _____
 While I am fight - ing, _____ For Lib - er - ty? _____

Fine

Here, as I fight in France, _____ Tak-ing a glor-ious chance, _____ You're my star, shin-ing far, in the sky, And to you I'll be true till I die. Oh, my dar - ling,

OH, LET ME FLY!

Words and Music
By HONOR BRIGHT

CHORUS

I want to fly, fly, fly, — So ve-ry high, high, high, — That I can drop a bomb on Kal - ser Bill, And if I die, die, die, — There's a mansion up-on High — That's re-served for those who drop a bomb on Bill.

Oh, Let Me Fly 2
