By JOHN L. ROGERS

INTRO.

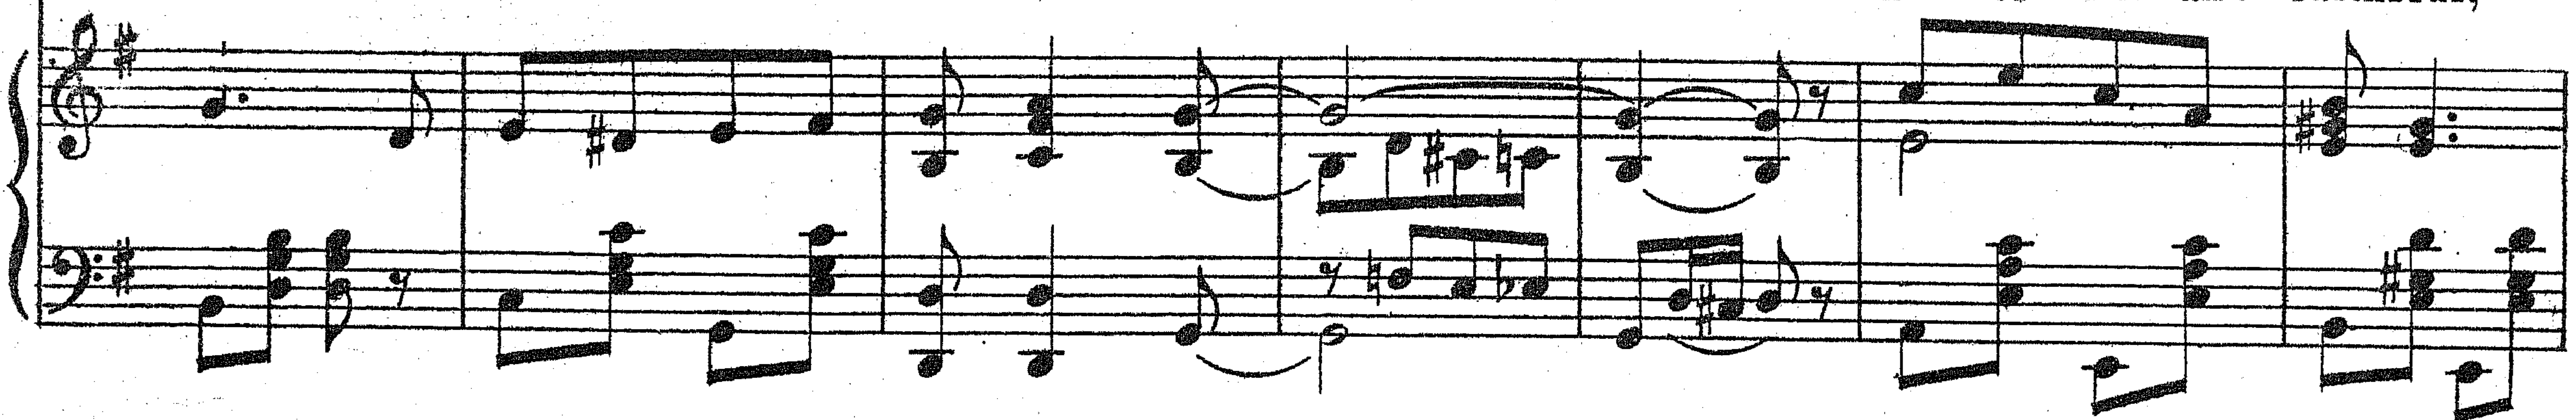

VAMP.

Our Un_cle Sam has drawn his sword to make this old world Old Glo-ry has ne'er been furled or ev-er known de-free he's fight-ing for our Lib-er-ty feat it's ev-er for-ward no re-treat

Side by side our Al-lies, Ev-er true and faith-ful,

help-ing dear old France who was our friend in need al-ways for the right and once more we re-peat

We'll fight un-til the We'll fight un-til the

vic-try is won
vic-try is won

We're true blue yes ev-'ry moth-ers son.
We're true blue yes ev-'ry moth-ers son.

CHORUS

We're go-ing, we're go-ing, we're go-ing right on ov-er, We are on our way to France _____ We're go-ing, we're go-ing, we're go-ing right on ov-er for now we have our chance _____ We're man-y and we're mighty, keen and ver-y fight-y, we'll make the Fritz's dance the tune of Yankee Doo-dle-Doo, We're swear-in' and tear-in' a rip-pin' and a rear-in' to take our chance at them _____ We'll bring the kaisers crown back to the U. S. A. and pre-sent it to our Un-cle Sam. _____ We're Sam. _____

1

I long to hear the old songs once again

Intro.

By JOHN L. ROGERS

3rd verse patriotic.

My heart's been far a - way, it just came back to - day, When I
 When I looked in your eyes, I knew you were my prize, You We've heard our coun - try's call, and we will give our all, To the looked in - to your eyes of blue I seem to hear a - gain, an loved me too and we were quick - ly wed Now I sit by the fire, you flag we loved so fond and true So come boys sing a song, and old and sweet re - frain, And it seems they al - ways brought me dreams of you grant my heart's de - sire, And sing to me the old songs long dead dead sing it good and strong, To the stars and stripes the dear red white and blue
